

BIA Meeting Quick Reference

Tuesday, Feb 19, 2026 | 2:00 PM | Peach Coffee Shop

TOP 3 TALKING POINTS

1. Town of Oakville Strongly Recommends BIA Partnership

"Anna Rookyard specifically told us to partner with the BIA—she said you have amazing social media channels, community outreach, and can connect us with local businesses."

2. This Benefits Bronte Businesses

"800+ participants + thousands of visitors = significant foot traffic for Bronte restaurants, cafes, and shops on Father's Day. Local businesses capture that economic opportunity."

3. Ground Floor of New Annual Tradition

"Year one founding partners will be part of building something special. We want BIA and its members involved from the start."

TOP 5 QUESTIONS TO ASK

1. What's the typical process for BIA to support community events?
1. Which BIA member businesses would be most interested in this?
1. How far in advance do you need promotional materials?
1. Could we present to BIA members at a meeting or event?
1. What would make this partnership most valuable for the BIA?

NEXT STEPS TO CONFIRM

- [ ] BIA commits to promotional support
- [ ] Access to gazebo community board

- [ ] Timeline for social media posts
- [ ] List of recommended businesses to approach
- [ ] Process for intro to BIA members
- [ ] Any forms/agreements needed
- [ ] Follow-up meeting scheduled (if needed)

IF THEY ASK ABOUT BIA PARTNERSHIP LEVELS

Option 1: Promotional Partner (FREE)

- Social media + website + newsletter + community board
- Logo recognition on our materials

Option 2: Supporting Partner ($2,000-$5,000)

- All promotional benefits + active business recruitment
- Vendor booth + 4-6 race entries + enhanced visibility

Option 3: Presenting Partner ($5,000-$8,000)

- "Presented by Bronte BIA" recognition
- Speaking slot + booth + 8-10 entries + premium benefits

NOTE: We're NOT asking for financial contribution—promotional support is most valuable. But if BIA wants deeper involvement, these options exist.

REMEMBER

- This is a partnership discussion, not a sales pitch
- Listen and learn about BIA's perspective
- Be flexible and collaborative
- Focus on mutual benefits
- Think long-term partnership
- Kylie already expressed excitement in her email!

AFTER MEETING

- Send thank you email within 24 hours
- Recap outcomes and next steps
- Provide materials promised

- Schedule follow-up if needed
